“At syuwéñct we ...”

Having common expectations for how we show up here is key to having a safe, caring and inclusive school for all of us to learn, grow, and play and to be the best we can be! You can help us get everyone on the same page with these expectations by talking about them at home, too. Our current focus is on, “at syuwéñct we keep our hands and our feet to ourselves!” and “at syuwéñct we use kind words and school language!” “School language” speaks specifically to the need to reduce the amount of swear words and foul language used by students. This isn’t just an issue with our older students – even the littles can be heard dropping some colourful phrases! We thank you in advance for reinforcing that the school is a workplace where swearing is an unexpected behaviour.

BRING WHAT YOU CAN – TAKE WHAT YOU NEED IS COMING! DONATIONS START MONDAY

We will begin accepting donations on Monday for our swap event. As shared last week and in a planner message, we are holding a free swap and shop on Wednesday December 7 from 4:00-6:00. Donations of clean, gently used clothing, foot wear, and toys are gladly accepted. Have too much wrapping paper, or too many gift bags? Send those along too! We will be accepting items that will fit adults as well – this is truly a way of sharing what we have in support of each other! Helpers will be needed prior to the event to sort and organize the donations, and at the event to help keep things moving. Questions? Email or call Dr. Charles!

SEEING DOUBLE!

We had our first school spirit day on Tuesday and we were definitely seeing double (or triple, quadruple, quintuple ...).
